Istanbul, with its position in the heart of Eurasia, is the ideal trade platform for the region. With a population of 14.1 million, Istanbul is the second largest city in the Middle East and the fifth-largest city in the world by population within city limits. Its commercial and historical centre lies in Europe, while a third of its population lives in Asia. Istanbul's strategic position along the rail Networks to Europe and the Middle East and the only sea route between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean makes it the most important city in the Turkish economy. Istanbul has two international airports and a competitive advantage in the maritime sector, having three sides to the sea.
