The 2024 edition of WoodTech brought together over 360 exhibitors from 26 countries and welcomed 22,639 visitors from 89 countries, solidifying its position as a key business hub in the woodworking industry. The fair featured the latest production technologies and provided a dynamic environment for industry professionals to explore innovative solutions and gain a competitive edge in global markets.

WoodTech 2025: Your Gateway to New Markets

Drawing strong attention from Europe, the Middle East, Africa, the Balkans, and Turkic countries, WoodTech continues to be the must-attend business meeting point for professionals in the woodworking industry. With a goal of expanding its international reach, WoodTech 2025 offers a powerful platform to grow trade networks both regionally and globally.

Berkan Öner, General Manager of RX Tüyap, Highlights the Fair's Value to the Industry:

“WoodTech continues to strengthen its role as the region's largest woodworking machinery fair.

In 2024, the fair was held across 12 halls and 120,000 sqm of exhibition space, bringing together 375 domestic and international companies and 22,639 industry professionals, including 3,609 international visitors from 89 countries.

As the central platform for cutting-edge technologies and industry-shaping solutions, WoodTech not only boosts the volume of trade in the sector but also enhances global collaboration.

We are proud to organize this major event in cooperation with AIMSAD, the leading industry association, and continue to expand its global impact through strategic marketing, international roadshows, digital campaigns, buyer delegation programs, and key partnerships.

With even bigger goals for 2025, we look forward to bringing the industry together once again.”
